This Agreement amends and replaces, in its entirety, all prior governing agreements for the Company, including any and all amendments thereto.

This Agreement is subject to, and governed by, the Delaware laws governing limited liability companies (the “DELAWARE LAWS”) and the Certificate. For purposes of this definition, “control” (including the terms “controlling”, “controlled by” and “under common control with”) of a Person means the possession, directly or indirectly, alone or in concert with others, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of such Person, whether through the ownership of securities, by contract or otherwise, and no Person shall be deemed in control of another solely by virtue of being a director, officer or holder of voting securities of any entity. A Person shall be presumed to control any partnership of which such Person is a general partner.

(v) if the Book Value of an asset has been determined or adjusted pursuant to Section 1.04(e)(i), 1.04(e)(ii), or 1.04(e)(iv) hereof, such Book Value shall thereafter be adjusted by the Book Depreciation taken into account with respect to such asset for purposes of computing Profits and Losses.

Company until he/she shall have executed this Agreement, or a counterpart hereto, and agrees to be bound by all of the terms and conditions hereof.

2.02 Annual Meetings An annual meeting of the Members of the Company shall be held during each calendar year on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Managers and stated in the notice of the meeting, and if a legal holiday, then on the next business day following, at the time specified in the notice of the meeting. At such meeting, the Members shall elect Managers and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

2.03 Special Meetings A special meeting of the Members may be called at any time by the President, the Board of Managers, or one or more Members whose Percentage Interests total at least 10%. Only such business shall be transacted at a special meeting as may be stated or indicated in the notice of such meeting.

2.04 Place of Meetings The annual meeting of Members may be held at any place within or without the State of Delaware as may be designated by the Board of Managers. Special meetings of Members may be held at any place within or without the State of Delaware as may be designated by the person or persons calling such special meeting as provided in Section 2.03. If no place for a meeting is designated, it shall be held at the registered office of the Company.

2.05 Notice. Written or printed notice stating the place, day, and hour of each meeting of Members and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than 10 days or more than 50 days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary, or the person calling the meeting, to each Member of record entitled to vote at such meeting.

2.06 Voting List At least 10 days before each meeting of Members, the Secretary shall prepare a complete list of Members entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, including the address of each Member and the number of voting Interests held by each Member. For a period of 10 days prior to such meeting, such list shall be kept on file at the registered office of the Company and shall be subject to inspection by any Member during usual business hours. Such list shall be produced at such meeting, and at all times during such meeting shall be subject to inspection by any Member. The membership interest transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the Members entitled to examine such list or membership interest transfer books.

2.07 Voting of Interests. Interests held by the Company in treasury, Interests owned by a Person the majority of the voting interests of which are owned or controlled by the Company, and Interests held by the Company in a fiduciary capacity shall not be Interests entitled to vote or to be counted in determining the total number of outstanding Interests of the Company. Interests held by an administrator, executor, guardian, or conservator may be voted by him or her, either in person or by proxy, without transfer of such Interests into his or her name so long as such Interests form a part of the estate and are in the possession of the estate being served by him or her. Interests standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by him or her, either in person or by proxy, only after the Interests have been transferred into his or her name as trustee. Interests standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such receiver, and Interests held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without transfer of such Interests into his or her name if authority to do so is contained in the court order by which such receiver was appointed. Interests standing in the name of another domestic or foreign corporation of any type or kind may be voted by such officer, agent, or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may provide or, in the absence of such provision, as the board of directors of such corporation may by resolution determine. A Member whose Interests are pledged shall be entitled to vote such Interests until they have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote such Interests.

2.08 Quorum. The presence in person or by proxy of one or more Members whose Percentage Interests total more than fifty percent (50%) shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of Members, except as otherwise provided by law, the Certificate, or this Agreement. At any reconvening of an adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted that could have been transacted at the original meeting if a quorum had been present or represented.

2.09 Vote; Withdrawal of Quorum. If a quorum is present in person or represented by proxy at any meeting, except as otherwise may be provided in Exhibit A or Exhibit B, the vote of one or more Members whose Percentage Interests total more than fifty percent (50%) of all Members, whether or not they are present in person or represented by proxy, shall decide any question brought before such meeting, unless the question is one on which, by express provision of law, the Certificate, or this Agreement a different vote is required, in which event such express provision shall govern and control the decision of such question. The Members present at a duly convened meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding any withdrawal of Members that may leave less than a quorum remaining.

2.10 Method of Voting; Proxies. Except as otherwise may be provided in Exhibit A or Exhibit B, each Member shall be entitled to that number of votes on each matter submitted to the Members for their vote equal to such Member's Percentage Interest multiplied by 100. At any meeting of Members, every Member having the right to vote may vote either in person or by a proxy executed in writing by the Member or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. Each such proxy shall be filed with the Secretary of the Company before or at the time of the meeting. No proxy shall be valid after 11 months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. If no date is stated on a proxy, such proxy shall be presumed to have been executed on the date of the meeting at which it is to be voted. Each proxy shall be revocable unless expressly provided therein to be irrevocable or unless otherwise made irrevocable by law.

2.11 Closing of Transfer Books; Record Date . For the purpose of determining Members entitled to notice of, or to vote at, any meeting of Members or any reconvening thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any distribution, or in order to make a determination of Members for any other proper purpose, the Board of Managers may provide that the membership interest transfer books of the Company shall be closed for a stated period but not to exceed in any event 50 days. If the membership interest transfer books are closed for the purpose of determining Members entitled to notice of, or to vote at, a meeting of Members, such books shall be closed for at least 10 days immediately preceding such meeting. In lieu of closing the membership interest transfer books, the Board of Managers may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of Members, such date in any case to be not more than 50 days and not less than 10 days prior to the date on which the particular action requiring such determination of Members is to be taken. If the membership interest transfer books are not closed and if no record date is fixed for the determination of Members entitled to notice of, or to vote at, a meeting of Members or entitled to receive payment of a distribution, the date on which the notice of the meeting is to be mailed or the date on which the resolution of the Board of Managers declaring such distribution is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of Members.

2.12 Presiding Officials at Meetings The President shall preside at, and the Secretary shall prepare minutes of, each meeting of Members, and in the absence of either such officer, his other duties shall be performed by some person appointed at the meeting.

However, a committee member may be removed by the Board of Managers only if, in the judgment of the Board of Managers, the best interests of the Company will be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed.

4.05 Regular Meetings . Regular meetings of any committee may be held without notice at such times and places, including by telephonic or other electronic methods of communication, as may be designated from time to time by resolution of the committee and communicated to all committee members.

The Capital Contributions of the Members, as set forth in the books and records of the Company, shall be paid or transferred to the Company in cash and/or property on the terms and in the manner specified by the Board of Managers. No Member shall be entitled to make any additional Capital Contributions except as provided in Section 7.02 and 7.03 below.

7.02 Additional Capital Contributions . If the Board of Managers determine that additional capital is required for the purposes of the Company, as set forth herein, the Board of Managers may notify the Members of the need for such additional capital and shall state the specific purposes for which the call for such additional capital is being made. Thereupon, all Members shall have the right (but not the obligation) to make additional Capital Contributions in cash and/or property to the Company aggregating the amount of additional capital needed by the Company in the proportion of their respective Percentage Interests in the Company at the time notice is given. The Board of Managers shall use the additional capital so contributed solely for the purposes stated in the notice to the Members.

7.03 Failure to Make Additional Capital Contributions . If any Member chooses not to contribute its share of the additional capital needed by the Company within 14 days after notice is given to the Members of the need for such additional capital (a "Non-Contributing Member"), then the other Members shall be entitled (but not obligated) to contribute the share of such Non-Contributing Member (such Members being referred to as "Contributing Members") of the additional capital needed pro rata according to such Contributing Members' Percentage Interests at such time or such other share as otherwise agreed upon by the Contributing Members.

7.04 Effect of Failure to Make Additional Capital Contributions . In the event of a Non-Contributing Member, the Percentage Interests of all of the Members shall be recomputed on the following basis: Each Member's Percentage Interest immediately following the computation shall equal the percentage expression of a fraction, the numerator of which is the total Capital Contributions of such Member plus the additional Capital Contribution, if any, made by such Member pursuant to Sections 7.02 and 7.03 above, and the denominator of which is the total Capital Contributions of all of the Members plus the additional Capital Contributions made by all of the Members pursuant to Sections 7.02 and 7.03 above.

7.05 Recapitalization by Admission of Additional Members . If additional capital is required for the purposes of the Company as set forth herein and the Board of Managers is unable to finance such capital needs by borrowing the required amounts or through notice to the existing Members of the necessity for additional Capital Contributions as provided in Section 7.02 and 7.03 above, the Board of Managers shall have the right to admit additional Members to the Company, upon receiving the other approvals required herein. Following the admission of one or more new Members, the Percentage Interest of each Member, including the newly admitted Member(s), shall be computed as follows: Each Member's Percentage Interest immediately following the computation shall equal the percentage expression of a fraction, the numerator of which is the total Capital Contributions of such Member and the denominator of which is the total Capital Contributions of all of the Members, including the newly admitted Members.

7.06 Maintenance of Capital Accounts . The Company shall maintain for each Member a separate Capital Account in accordance with this Section 7.06, which shall control the allocation of Profits and Losses and the division of assets upon liquidation of the Company as provided in Section 12.01. Each Capital Account shall be maintained in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) a Member's Capital Account shall initially be zero and shall be increased by the cash amount or Book Value of any property contributed by such Member to the Company pursuant to this Agreement, such Member's allocable share of Profits and any items in the nature of income or gains that are specially allocated to such Member pursuant to Section 8.02 and Section 8.03 hereof, and the amount of any Company liabilities assumed by such Member or which are secured by any property distributed to such Member;

(b) such Capital Account shall be decreased by the cash amount or Book Value of any property distributed to such Member pursuant to this Agreement, such Member's allocable share of Losses and any items in the nature of deductions or losses that are specially allocated to such Member pursuant to Section 8.02 and Section 8.03 hereof, and the amount of any liabilities of the Member assumed by the Company or which are secured by any property contributed by such Member to the Company; and

(c) if all or a portion of an Interest in the Company is Transferred in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the transferee shall succeed to the Capital Account of the transferor to the extent it relates to the transferred Interest, provided, however, that if the Transfer causes a termination of the Company under Code Section 708(b)(1)(B), the assets of the Company shall be deemed to have been distributed to the Members (including the transferee of the Interest) in liquidation of the Company and recontributed by such Members and transferees in reconstitution of the Company. Such deemed liquidation and reconstitution shall not cause the Company to be dissolved and/or reconstituted for purposes other than maintenance of the Capital Accounts and federal income tax.

The foregoing provisions and the other provisions of this Agreement relating to the maintenance of Capital Accounts are intended to comply with Section 1.704-1(b) of the Treasury Regulations and shall be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent with such Treasury Regulations. If the Board of Managers determines that it is prudent to modify the manner in which the Capital Accounts, or any increases or decreases to the Capital Accounts, are computed in order to comply with such Treasury Regulations, the Board of Managers may authorize such modifications, provided that it is not likely to have a material effect on the amounts distributable to any Member pursuant to Sections 8.06 and 12.01 hereof.

7.07 Negative Capital Accounts . If any Member has a deficit balance in its Capital Account, such Member shall have no obligation to restore such negative balance or to make any Capital Contribution to the Company by reason thereof, and such negative balance shall not be considered an asset of the Company or of any Member.

7.08 Interest . No interest shall be paid by the Company on Capital Contributions or on balances in Capital Accounts.

7.09 No Withdrawal . No Member shall be entitled to withdraw any part of his Capital Contribution or his Capital Account or to receive any distribution from the Company, except as provided in Sections 11.02 and 12.01 of this Agreement.

7.10 Loans From Members . Loans by a Member to the Company shall not be considered Capital Contributions.

(i) first, to each Member with a negative balance in its Capital Account, pro rata in accordance with such negative Capital Account balances, until such negative Capital Account balances have been eliminated;

(ii) next, to all of the Members in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests.

(b) Allocation of Losses. Except as provided in any Exhibit hereto, after giving effect to the allocations set forth in Section 8.02 and Section 8.03, Losses for any Fiscal Year shall be allocated to the Members in the following manner:

(i) to all of the Members in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests.

8.02 Special Allocations of Profits and Losses .

(a) Minimum Gain Chargeback–Company Nonrecourse Liabilities. This Section 8.02(a) is intended to comply with the minimum gain chargeback requirement set forth in Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(f) relating to Company nonrecourse liabilities, as defined in Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(b)(3) and shall be so interpreted.

(b) Minimum Gain Chargeback–Member Nonrecourse Debt. If there is a net decrease in Member minimum gain during any Fiscal Year, certain items of income and gain shall be allocated (on a gross basis) as quickly as possible to those Members who had a share of the Member minimum gain determined pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(5) in the amounts and manner described in Treasury Regulations Sections 1.704-2(i)(4), (j)(2)(ii), and (j)(2)(iii). This Section 8.02(b) is intended to comply with the minimum gain chargeback requirement set forth in Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(4) relating to Member nonrecourse debt, as defined in Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(b)(4) and shall be so interpreted.

If, after applying Section 8.02(a) and Section 8.02(b), any Member has an adjusted Capital Account deficit, items of Company income and gain shall be specially allocated (on a gross basis) to each such Member in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate the adjusted Capital Account deficit of such Member as quickly as possible. This Section 8.02(c) is intended to comply with the “qualified income offset” requirement set for the in Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) and shall be so interpreted.

(f) Partner Nonrecourse Deductions. Partner Nonrecourse Deductions shall be allocated pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(b)(4) and (i)(1) to the Member who bears the economic risk of loss with respect to such deductions.

8.03 Curative Allocations . The Regulatory Allocations are intended to comply with certain requirements of the Treasury Regulations. It is the intent of the Members that, to the extent possible, all Regulatory Allocations shall be offset either with other Regulatory Allocations or with special allocations of other items of Company income, gain, loss, or deduction pursuant to this Section 8.03. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Article VIII, the Board of Managers shall make such offsetting special allocations of Company income, gain, loss, or deduction in whatever manner it determines appropriate so that, after such offsetting allocations are made, each Member’s Capital Account balance is, to the extent possible, equal to the Capital Account balance such Member would have had if the Regulatory Allocations were not part of the Agreement and all Company items were allocated pursuant to Section 8.01(a) and Section 8.01(b) hereof.

8.04 Tax Allocations: Code Section 704(c) .

(a) In accordance with Code Section 704(c) and the Treasury Regulations thereunder, income, gain, loss, and deduction with respect to any property contributed to the capital of the Company shall, solely for federal income tax purposes, be allocated among the Members so as to take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such property to the Company for federal income tax purposes and its initial Book Value.

(b) If the Book Value of any Company asset is adjusted pursuant to Section 1.04(e)(ii) hereof, subsequent allocations of income, gain, loss, and deduction with respect to such asset shall take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such asset for federal income tax purposes and its Book Value in the same manner as under Code Section 704(c) and the Treasury Regulations thereunder.

(c) Any elections or other decisions relating to such allocation shall be made by the Board of Managers. Allocations pursuant to this Section 8.04 are solely for purposes of federal, state, and local taxes and shall not affect or in any way be taken into account in computing any Member's Capital Account, or share of Profits, Losses, and other items or distribution pursuant to any provision of this Agreement.

8.05 Other Allocation Rules .

(a) For purposes of determining the Profits, Losses, or any other item allocable to any period, Profits, Losses, and any such other item shall be determined on a daily, monthly, or other basis, as determined by the Board of Managers using any permissible method under Code Section 706 and the Treasury Regulations thereunder.

(c) The Members are aware of the income tax consequences of the allocations made by this Article VIII and hereby agree to be bound by the provisions of this Article VIII in reporting their shares of Company income and loss for income tax purposes.

(d) It is intended that the allocations in Sections 8.01, 8.02, 8.03, and 8.04 hereof effect an allocation for federal income tax purposes consistent with Section 704 of the Code and comply with any limitations or restrictions therein.

8.06 Distributions of Distributable Cash . Except as otherwise may be provided in this Agreement, the Board of Managers shall cause the Company to make distributions of Distributable Cash at such intervals and in such amounts as the Board of Managers in its sole discretion shall determine by majority vote. Distributions of Distributable Cash shall be made to all of the Members in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests.

other matters as may be required by law. The certificates shall be signed by the President or any Vice President and also by the Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, or any other officer, and may be sealed with the seal of the Company or a facsimile thereof. If any certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or registered by a registrar, either of which is other than the Company itself or an employee of the Company, the signatures of the foregoing officers may be a facsimile.

(b) the registered owner requests the issuance of a new certificate before the Company has notice that the certificate has been acquired by a purchaser for value in good faith and without notice of an adverse claim;

(c) the registered owner gives a bond in such form, and with such surety or sureties, with fixed or open penalty, as the Board of Managers may direct, in its discretion, to indemnify the Company (and its transfer agent and registrar, if any) against any claim that may be made on account of the alleged loss, destruction, or theft of the certificate; and

(d) the registered owner satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed by the Board of Managers.

When a certificate has been lost, destroyed, or stolen and the Member of record fails to notify the Company within a reasonable time after he has notice of it, if the Company registers a transfer of the Interests represented by the certificate before receiving such notification, the Member of record is precluded from making any claim against the Company for the transfer or for a new certificate.

9.04 Transfer of Interests . Interests of the Company shall be transferable only on the books of the Company by the Members thereof in person or by their duly authorized attorneys or legal representatives, but only as authorized in this COMPANY AGREEMENT. With respect to certificated interests, upon surrender to the Company or the transfer agent of the Company of a certificate representing Interests duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the Company or its agent shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate, and record the transaction upon its books. With respect to uncertificated interests, upon delivery to the Company of proper evidence of succession, assignment, or authority to transfer, the Company or its agent shall record the transaction upon its books.

9.05 Registered Members . The Company shall be entitled to treat the Member of record as the Member in fact of any Interests and, accordingly, shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such Interests on the part of any other Person, whether or not it shall have actual or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

9.06 Legends . If the Company issues any Interests that are not registered under the Securities Act of 1933, the transfer of any such interests shall be restricted in accordance with an appropriate legend.

In the event any restriction on the transfer, or registration of the transfer, of Interests shall be imposed or agreed to by the Company, each certificate representing Interests so restricted (a) shall conspicuously set forth a full or summary statement of the restriction on the face of the certificate; (b) shall set forth such statement on the back of the certificate and conspicuously refer to the same on the face of the certificate; or (c) shall conspicuously state on the face or back of the certificate that such a restriction exists pursuant to a specified document and (i) that the Company will furnish to the record holder of the certificate without charge upon written request to the Company at its principal place of business or registered

ARTICLE XI

CHANGES IN MEMBERS

The provisions of this Article XI are subject to, and may be superceded by, one or more separate agreements entered into by and among one or more Members. The provisions of this Article XI shall continue to control with respect to matters not covered by, or Members not parties to, such agreement(s).

11.02 Transfer and Assignment of Members' Interest . Except as approved by the Manager, plus a Member or Members owning a Percentage Interest greater than fifty percent (50%), no Member shall be entitled to Transfer any part of its Interest in the Company. The Company and, if applicable, the remaining Members shall be entitled to match the terms of the proposed Transfer, with consideration being only set forth in traditional monetary terms. If the Company and the remaining Members fail to match the proposed Transfer with regard to the purchase of the entire Interest, or portion thereof, the Member proposing to make the Transfer may move forward with the proposed Transfer. Transfers in violation of this Section 11.02 shall be effective only to the extent set forth in Section 11.05(b) hereof.

11.03 Further Restrictions on Transfer . No Member shall Transfer any part of his Interest in the Company: (i) without registration under applicable federal and state securities laws, or unless he delivers an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Company that registration under such laws is not required; or (ii) if the Interest to be sold or exchanged, when added to the total of all other Interests to be sold or exchanged in the preceding 12 consecutive months prior thereto, would result in the termination of the Company under Code Section 708.

11.04 Substitute Members . A transferee shall have the right to become a substitute Member if (a) the requirements of Section 11.02 and 11.03 hereof are met; (b) such person executes an instrument satisfactory to the remaining Members accepting and adopting the terms and provisions of this Agreement; and (c) such person pays any reasonable expenses in connection with his or her admission as a Member.

By executing this Agreement, however, all Members hereby consent that they shall not voluntarily cause a Dissolution Event or demand the return of Member's capital. If any Member shall breach the agreement represented by this Section 11.06, the agreement of such breaching Member shall not be specifically performable, but shall be actionable for damages, and shall be deemed an offer of the Interest of such breaching Member for sale pursuant hereto. The parties agree that a reasonable approximation of the damage that the Company shall experience due to breach hereof is 20% of the value of the breaching Member's Interest, or as otherwise set forth herein (whichever is greater), which shall be deducted from any payments to such Member upon dissolution or purchase of such Member's Interest hereunder. The value of the breaching Member's Interest shall be determined pursuant to Section 11.01, to which value the said discount may then be applied in determining payments due to the breaching Member pursuant to the deemed offer of sale occurring under this Section 11.06.

13.01 Indemnification of Members, Managers, and Other Persons .

(a) To the greatest extent not inconsistent with the laws and public policies of Delaware, the Company shall indemnify any Member, Manager, or officer of the Company made a party to any proceeding because such individual is or was a Member, Manager, or officer of the Company (an "Indemnitee"), as a matter of right, against all liability incurred by such individual in connection with any proceeding; provided that it shall be determined in the specific case in accordance with subsection (d) of this Section 13.01 that indemnification of such individual is permissible in the circumstances because the individual has met the standard of conduct for indemnification set forth in subsection (c) of this Section 13.01. The Company shall advance, pay for, or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by an Indemnitee in connection with any such proceeding in advance of final disposition thereof if (i) the Indemnitee furnishes the Company a written affirmation of the Indemnitee's good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct for indemnification described in subsection (c) of this Section 13.01; (ii) the Indemnitee furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on such Indemnitee's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that such individual did not meet such standard of conduct; and (iii) a determination is made in accordance with subsection (d) that based upon facts then known to those making the determination, indemnification would not be precluded under this Section 13.01. The undertaking described in subsection (a)(ii) above must be a general obligation of the Indemnitee, subject to such reasonable limitations as the Company may permit, but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment. The Company shall indemnify an Indemnitee who is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any such proceeding, as a matter of right, against reasonable expenses incurred by the individual in connection with the proceeding without the requirement of a determination as set forth in subsection (c) of this Section 13.01. Upon demand by an Indemnitee for indemnification or advancement of expenses, as the case may be, the Company shall expeditiously determine whether the Indemnitee is entitled thereto in accordance with this Section 13.01. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided for under this Section 13.01 shall be applicable to any proceeding arising from acts or omissions occurring before or after the adoption of this Section 13.01.

(b) The Company shall have the power, but not the obligation, to indemnify any individual who is or was an employee or agent of the Company to the same extent as if such individual was a Member, Manager, or officer of the Company.

(c) Indemnification is permissible under this Section 13.01 only if (i) the Indemnitee conducted himself in good faith; (ii) he or she reasonably believed that his conduct was in, or at least not opposed to, the Company's best interest; (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; and (iv) such Indemnitee is not adjudged in any such proceeding to be liable for gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of duty. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the Indemnitee did not meet the standard of conduct described in this subsection (c).

(d) A determination as to whether indemnification or advancement of expenses is permissible shall be made by any one of the following procedures:

(i) by the Board of Managers or by a majority vote consisting of Members not at the time parties to the proceeding; or

(ii) by special legal counsel selected by the Members in the manner prescribed in subsection (d)(i) above.

(e) An Indemnitee of the Company who is a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification from the Company to the court, if any, conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. On receipt of an application, the court, after giving notice the court considers necessary, may order indemnification if it determines:

(i) in a proceeding in which the Indemnitee is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, the Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification under this Section 13.01, in which case the court shall order the Company to pay the Indemnitee his or her reasonable expenses incurred to obtain such court ordered indemnification; or

(ii) the Indemnitee is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the Indemnitee met the standard of conduct set forth in subsection (c) of this Section 13.01.

(f) Indemnification shall also be provided for an Indemnitee's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan if the individual reasonably believed his or her conduct to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of plan.

(g) Nothing contained in this Section 13.01 shall limit or preclude the exercise or be deemed exclusive of any right under the law, by contract or otherwise, relating to indemnification of or advancement of expenses to any individual who is or was a Member, Manager, or officer of the Company or is or was serving at the Company's request as a director, officer, partner, manager, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic company, partnership, association, limited liability company, corporation, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise, whether for profit or not. Nothing contained in this Section 13.01 shall limit the ability of the Company to otherwise indemnify or advance expenses to any individual. It is the intent of this Section 13.01 to provide indemnification to Indemnitees to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted by the law consistent with the terms and conditions of this Section 13.01. Indemnification shall be provided in accordance with this Section 13.01 irrespective of the nature of the legal or equitable theory upon which a claim is made, including, without limitation, negligence, breach of duty, mismanagement, waste, breach of contract, breach of warranty, strict liability, violation of federal or state securities law, violation of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, or violation of any other state or federal law.

(h) For purposes of this Section 13.01:

(i) The term "expenses" includes all direct and indirect costs (including, without limitation, counsel fees, retainers, court costs, transcripts, fees of experts, witness fees, travel expenses, duplicating costs, printing and binding costs, telephone charges, postage, delivery service fees, and all other disbursements or out-of-pocket expenses) actually incurred in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement, or appeal of a proceeding or establishing or enforcing a right to indemnification under this Section 13.01, applicable law, or otherwise.

(ii) The term "liability" means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, excise tax (including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan), or reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding.

(iii) The term "party" includes an individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding.

(iv) The term "proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal.

(v) The Company may purchase and maintain insurance for its benefit, the benefit of any individual who is entitled to indemnification under this Section 13.01, or both, against any liability asserted against or incurred by such individual in any capacity or arising out of such individual's service with the Company, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such individual against such liability.
